ABOUT (ISHIKA)

I think in stories before I think in strategy.

Give me a brand, a fest, a room full of five-year-olds, or a stage, and I'm doing the same thing every time: looking for what's actually underneath it. People keep handing me the thing they can't afford to get wrong, and trusting that once it's mine, it's handled.

FOUNDER & CREATIVE DIRECTOR

THE LOUD TABLE

Brand strategy and content, built around what a brand really stands for.

WHAT IT IS

We ask what a brand stands for, beneath what looks good in a deck.

HOW WE WORK

We build on instinct already proven, ahead of promises still being tested. We sell trust you can leave alone, the kind that needs no checking up on.

WHAT THE STUDIO DOES

- Brand strategy
- Personal branding
- Market research
- Social media management
- End-to-end creative direction
- Community building & events
- PR & outreach
- Influencer marketing

STAX LIVING

A furniture campaign where the colour only arrives when you get home.

ROLE	Market research, creative direction, social media
ORGANISATION	Stax Living, furniture collections

THE BRIEF

Consistent social media posting, with themes and concepts for new furniture collections that use storytelling as a promotional tool.

THE APPROACH

Storytelling concepts built on human emotion. The day outside is black and white: the commute, the traffic, the noise of Bombay, routine without colour. Then you get home, and there is red. That is the furniture.

WHAT I DID

Market research · Creative direction · Social media management

THE LOUD TABLE · CLIENT WORK

INDRAVANSH

Turning a store's founder into the face of her brand.

ROLE	Personal branding & creative direction
ORGANISATION	Harshita, Founder of Indravansh Multi Designer Store

THE BRIEF

The founder wanted to become the face of her brand, increase digital engagement, attract collaborations, and position the brand at the intersection of heritage and luxury.

THE APPROACH

We began by identifying the founder's personal voice and visual sensibility, then built a content and presentation strategy around it, positioning her as the storyteller behind the brand rather than a separate marketing entity.

WHAT I DID

- Personal branding
- Creative direction
- Three end-to-end shoots a month

Repositioning a writer as an editorial strategist.

ROLE	Brand strategy & creative direction
ORGANISATION	DesignEcho Communications, a writing service based in Ahmedabad

THE BRIEF

To develop brand guidelines that communicate a premium, luxury look and elevate the founder's positioning from writer to editorial strategist.

THE APPROACH

A detailed questionnaire covering goals, service details, styling preferences, and references, followed by logo development and full brand positioning.

WHAT CAME OF IT

A premium, cohesive brand identity that repositioned DesignEcho as an editorial strategy consultancy rather than a freelance writing service.

WHAT I DID

Brand strategy · Brand guidelines · Logo development · Brand positioning
